Three Cheers for Volunteering!

Hosted by the community spirited White Hart Pub in Andover, the Unity Three Cheers for Volunteers Event was the happening place to be on a rainy lunchtime on Tuesday 24th April. To the backdrop of live music played by Andy Pomfret and a number of volunteers from the Inclusion group, this relaxed event for over two hours, was arranged to recognise the contribution individuals make to charities and groups enabling them to socialise with others across the area as well as providing information to people interested in finding out more about where and how they can volunteer.
